Air Conditioners Taken From Struggling Private School

BY IRIS B. HOLTON
Sentinel City Editor

Unidentified suspects removed the copper tubing from several of the air conditioning units at St. Peter Claver Catholic School, 1401 N. Governor Street. Once inside, the suspects removed the copper tubing from four large air conditioners on the outside of the main building.

Police said no entry was made into the buildings on campus. A crime scene lab responded to the scene, took photographs and dusted the area for fingerprints. The investigation is continuing, police said.

Sister Marie, Principal of the school said seven air conditioners that cooled the main building are not functioning. Five of the units are completely empty and two have some fragments left in the shells. She further stated that a volunteer discovered the burglary Wednesday morning.

"We leave the air conditioner on to keep the computer room cool and when he arrived it was hot in there. He started looking around and made the discovery. "The unfortunate part of this is that we struggle from month to month to make ends meet and now this. It's just not fair," Sister Marie said.

The main building houses the computer room, the music room, the art room, the entire second story auditorium, and the main building. Currently, St. Peter Claver has an enrollment of about 100 children in grades Pre K-3 to 8th grade. It has been a part of the community in the same location for 116 years. Anyone with any information about the theft is asked to contact the Tampa Police Department at (813) 231-6130.

Sister Marie further stated that early estimates to replace the air conditioning units is more than $25,000. Anyone wishing to contact the school can call (813) 224-0865.

Council Approves Renaming Of Street After Community Activist

Members of City Council agreed to rename a portion of an East Tampa street after the late Rev. Abraham Brown.

Rev. Thomas Scott said Councilwoman Gwen Miller made the motion to name a portion of N. 29th Street after Rev. Brown. It was seconded and it passed unanimously. The next stage in the naming process is for City Administration to conduct an investigation to determine the cost and other factors and report back to City Council.

Bar-B-Que King Fire Causes $10,000 In Damage

An early morning fire at a West Tampa business resulted in thousands of dollars in damage. The fire was discovered after police officers on routine patrol observed smoke from the Bar-B-Que King Restaurant, 2132 W. Main Street. Firefighters arrived at the scene and quickly extinguished the flames.

Captain Wade said the fire was contained in the grill area and estimated $10,000 in damages. He said the fire was apparently caused by something re-igniting in the grill.

Ms. Tiffany Candis, co-owner of the business said she and her sister, Ms. Amelia Howard, are in the process of obtaining estimates to repair the building. The business will reopen once the repairs are completed.
Elderly Woman Dies In House Fire

BY IRIS B. HOLTON

An elderly Progress Village woman died at a local hospital after being a victim of a fire at her residence. The fire at 5211 80th Street South was reported shortly after 1 a.m.

According to the Hillsborough County Fire Department, the first units arriving on the scene observed light smoke coming from the home. Firefighters entered the home and located Mrs. Caroline Crenshaw in a rear bedroom.

Mrs. Crenshaw, who turned 78 on September 14th, was treated at the scene and transported to Brandon Community Hospital with life-threatening injuries. She died later on Wednesday.

Captain Ray Yeakley, spokesperson for the Hillsborough County Fire Department said the blaze was quickly extinguished with 20 minutes of the arrival of the fire department. The fire, which was confined to a single room, is currently under investigation and its cause has not been determined.

Mrs. Caroline Crenshaw was removed from her home at 5211 80th Street, South in Progress Village early Wednesday morning.

A native of Albany, Georgia, Mrs. Crenshaw was the mother of two children, Mrs. Johnnie Coleman and Brian Maddox. She had lived in Tampa for several years. She was living alone at the time of the fire. She had been also been a resident of Progress Village for several years, her daughter said.

Mrs. Coleman said her mother was a professional nurse and retired from the James A. Haley Veterans Hospital.

A spokesperson for the James A. Haley Veterans Hospital said Mrs. Crenshaw retired in May 1991. She had worked in Haley’s Cove Community Living Center as an LPN.

No funeral home had been chosen to handle arrangements as of press time. Mrs. Coleman said funeral arrangements were incomplete.

Second Trial Underway For Library Rape Suspect

The second rape trial for a Tampa teenager began earlier this week. Kendrick Morris, 19, was arrested and charged with attacking a Bloomingdale high school student in May 2008. The first jury was unable to reach a unanimous verdict.

On April 24, 2008, around 10 p.m., an 18-year-old student was talking to a friend on the telephone as she dropped off books at the Bloomingdale Public Library. At some point, the friend heard the victim scream and the call dropped.

Police were called and upon arrival, discovered the victim had been raped, severely beaten, and left naked behind the library. She had no memory of the attack. The victim must have 14-hour care and cannot walk or talk.

Morris was previously convicted of the rape of a 62-year-old daycare employee who was attacked in 2007. Police reportedly linked his DNA to that case. He has also allegedly been linked to the current case by DNA.

The case is being heard before Judge Chet A. Thurpe.

Tenure: An Outdated Security Blanket

Make no mistake about it, this writer has the utmost respect for teachers. Teaching is a noble, important and necessary profession. Teachers have the massive responsibility of educating and molding the minds of our children and the future of this nation.

I realize that teachers are underpaid, under respected and underappreciated. I want to say very emphatically that there are many good, effective teachers working in our schools across this nation. But likewise, there are many teachers who are totally ineffective and teach only for the paycheck.

These kinds of teachers are allowed to teach for years and years, crippling the children whom they are supposed to teach. How are they allowed to do this, you ask? It is through a procedure called tenure.

Tenure is a process that literally guarantees a teacher a teaching job after a short probationary period. Once a teacher gets tenure, it is a very difficult job to try to get them out of the system. Tenure has become nothing more than a security blanket for poor teachers.

Good teachers don’t need tenure. Teachers like Margaret Blake Roach, John Henry Evans, Corrine Young, Clyde Allen, Ruby Wysinger, Frankie Berry, Delores Clark, Dorothy Young, Chester Miles, Doretha Edgecomb and Herbert Kinsey, would have been teachers for as long as they were, with or without tenure.

Why? Because these people were good at teaching children. They were dedicated, cared about their students, came to class prepared, motivated their students, made them want to learn, made their lessons interesting and genuinely loved teaching children.

The above named teachers and the many like them, that I don’t have the space to name individually, don’t need tenure because they were good teachers. Good teachers will always have a job. Good teachers don’t dwell on student’s weaknesses, but rather builds on their strengths and uses them to correct or strengthen their weaknesses.

Most good teachers don’t want to break rank. So, they either defend tenure or remain silent on the issue. But, if truth be told, they will tell you these kinds of teachers need something else to do. Sometimes people go into teaching and later discover that teaching isn’t what they want to do.

Some get burned out, some just never had what it takes to be a good teacher and some, for other reasons, just don’t want to teach anymore.

It doesn’t mean that these people are not good people. It just means they aren’t good teachers and should not be allowed to hide behind tenure.

President is now sounding like a Republican is because ‘YES-I-CAN’ has conked the heck out of you.

Having made his caustic comments, both Limbaugh and his TV interviewer shared a polite laugh until the interviewer asked, “Now, Mr. Limbaugh – all joking aside – how can you and your Conservative colleagues continue to support someone who seemingly is now saying the same things you’ve been saying, all along?”

Oh, that would seem that with Obama’s change of attitude, the Republican Party has now gotten everything it ever wanted. Yet, you guys are still not happy. Tell us. Is your distrust and disinterest with President Obama basically because he is Black?”

That’s right. This column was written by Shel Bedard. His column for its “make-believe” are as clear as the nose on Rush Limbaugh’s face. When it comes to the Presidency of the United States, it would not matter if Obama used GOP speech-writers or put on a pair of Rush Limbaugh’s pajamas. Conservative Republicans would rather send America to Hell in a hand-basket than to see it saved by a Black man! That is just not happening. Did Limbaugh say, only days after President Obama was elected, “I hope he fails”? Sometimes, the truth is, indeed, the light!
Citizens Committee To Host ‘Get Out The Vote Rally’ Sunday

BY IRIS B. HOLTON
Sentinel City Editor

Members of the Citizens Committee have made the final preparations for the “Get Out The Vote Rally” planned for Sunday, October 3. The event will be held at Alfred “Al” Barnes Park, formerly 18th Avenue Park, 2902 N. 32nd Street, from 2 p.m. to 6 p.m.

The theme for the event is “United We Stand.” Dr. Earl Lennard, Hillsborough County Supervisor of Elections, is slated to attend and there will be two tables established to provide voter education and voter registration.

Shawn Brown will head a list of various artists who will be on hand. A health fair, community awareness information and educational information and activities for children are also planned.

Among those making an appearance and providing information will include sororities, fraternities, elected officials, and other organizations. The City of Tampa Parks and Recreation, who are serving as co-sponsors, will be on hand as well.

Marvin Knight, organizer of the Citizens Committee said, “This is a way to unite the community at this non-partisan event. This is the last opportunity for anyone who is not a registered voter to prepare to take part in the upcoming election. If someone needs to change his or her voter information, they can do so at this event.

“We are going to have health screenings, free food, and entertainment. We are asking for those who plan to attend to carpool. We are also asking churches to use their vehicles to help transport their members to help with the parking.

“We are going to have a live DJ and activities for all ages. The Committee is very excited and enthusiastic about this event and we are just asking everyone to come out, have a good time, and fellowship in the park,” Knight said.

Anyone wishing to participate in the event or who would like additional information can contact Knight at (813) 453-5690; Ms. Donna Douglas at (813) 760-0705; or Adrian White at (813) 743-8779.
Someone once said that there are three sides to every story. There is what one person says, there is what another person believes, and then there is the truth. In the case of Eddie Long's alleged sex scandal, the last side is the hardest to decipher.

When I first heard the story last week about Bishop Long being sued by four male members of his congregation who claimed that he coerced them into sexual relationships by purchasing them cars, taking them on trips and giving them money, I thought to myself, "unbelievable." I didn't want to entertain the idea that the same man who claimed to be a champion of heterosexual virtue and an outspoken critic of homosexuality was, in actuality, living a down-low brother himself.

I met the accusations with skepticism, especially after it was revealed that two of his accusers were charged with breaking into his office and posing in spandex work and posing in spandex work, and a provocative picture of himself flexing and posing in spandex work, and a provocative picture of himself flexing.

The entire situation plays out as a classic example that everything done in the dark will eventually come to light. Being a Sheppard chosen to look into the fact that there was more to this story than what Bishop Long was revealing.

When one of the accusers produced a provocative photograph that the Bishop had taken of himself and allegedly sent via a cell phone, it raised a red flag of suspicion, impossible to ignore. I mean, let's be honest, what kind of straight man sends a picture of himself flexing and posing in spandex work out gear to another man?

Of course, supporters of Bishop Long will say that the photo proves nothing just didn't make sense that an 18-year-old male could be seduced into engaging in sexual activity with another man (regardless of how much money was on the table) without already being willing to go along with the program.

I was prepared to write the entire thing off as a lame attempt by a group of desperate individuals who looked to benefit off the Bishop's wealth. But then something unexpected happened—a picture surfaced. That was all it took for me to realize that there was more to this story than what Bishop Long was revealing.

Of course, supporters of Bishop Long will say that the photo proves nothing that the young men are only trying to get money. And while all of that could very well be true, it doesn't change the fact that when you add all of the partial pieces of evidence together, the trips out of the country, the expensive gifts and the exchanging of questionable photographs, at the very least it paints an unflattering portrait of a man whose entire reputation is based on upholding certain morals, values and principles.

In the end, I predict that these things will occur. To avoid further exposure of even more sordid details, Bishop Long will be forced to settle the lawsuit quietly or come clean about his romantic involvement with these individuals. And the young men will be seen more as lovers scorned than manipulated victims.

On Friday, October 1st, family members and friends will attend the viewing of 31-year-old Trevor Link. Link's body was found in a home on North Stella Avenue in Lakeland, shortly after midnight last Friday.

The funeral services for Link will be held on Saturday, October 2nd, at 1 p.m., at Word Alive Ministries in Lakeland. Police said they responded to the residence after receiving a report of shots being fired. Upon arrival, they discovered his body inside the home.

Link was popular in his Lakeland community and was friends with rappers, such as DeJuan and Piies, who will include parts of his funeral program into his next video and rap song. Some members of the National Football League (the Pouncy twins) will attend a special viewing on Friday because they will not be able to attend the services. Ms. Sonji Coney, of Coney Funeral Home said.

However, Ms. Coney said the viewing that will begin in the afternoon, will be a first of its kind. “He is going to be viewed in a Chrysler 300 car that is painted orange and green. He will also be wearing his Miami Dolphins outfit, including the hat and shoes.” “His family is celebrating his homegoing like he celebrated his life.”

Link was the second of five children born to Mrs. Gayle Sheals, of Lakeland. He was the father of 10 children, was expecting the birth of his daughter next month. He had just celebrated his 31st birthday on September 19th. Mrs. Sheals said his Miami Dolphins outfit, hat, and shoes, inside and out. “He loved cars and he loved the Miami Dolphins. We are dressing him in the hat, and outfit with everything to match.”

After the viewing on Friday, his body will be removed from the vehicle and placed in a traditional coffin for burial on Saturday.
Tribute Planned To Honor Marie White

BY GWEN HAYES

The former staff of On-Que! Magazine, a Christian magazine, has planned a tribute for its founder and publisher,

Marie Tarver White. The tribute will be held Saturday evening, October 2, 2010, 7 p.m. at St. John Cathedral Church, 3401 52nd Ave., Bishop Eddie Newkirk, Pastor.

"I am honored that the staff of On-Que! has chosen to honor me," Mrs. White said. "I'll be able to smell my flowers while I'm still living."

"I've experienced a month's threat of surgery, but I'm still recovering. Thanks be to God that I'm still alive and receiving his blessings," she said.

Arthur McKay said he and Marie "have been friends for many years. I was there when she put the first magazine together back in January-February 1990. It was her concept and a great concept...to look at church-related events that touched all people, especially the unsung heroes. The magazine allowed all kind of people to contribute."

"Marie is one who truly deserves this tribute," he said.

Donald Dowridge is slated to emcee the program Saturday evening, and says the public will not be disappointed.

"I refer to her as the 'First Lady of the Christian Community.' The magazine did a lot of good in the community...by shining the light on various pastors. Its intention was to uplift the community throughout," he said.

"The magazine is a part of Tampa's history.

Dowridge says Mrs. White is like a 'big sister' to him. "Because of my association with her and the magazine, a lot of doors were opened for DLD Enterprise," he said.

Mrs. White expresses gratitude to her husband, Rev. Donald White, children - Bridget, Tina, Donald, Samantha, Dante and Teri; her brother, Andrew JR Tarver, who traveled from Orlando 2-3 times each week during her illness; her godmothers, Rosie Walker and Mattie Murray; cousin, Arie Powell.

American Cancer Society Encourages Women To Put Their Health First To Fight Breast Cancer

As the nation marks the annual National Breast Cancer Awareness Month this October, the American Cancer Society is encouraging women to choose to put their personal breast health first to stay well and reduce their risk of breast cancer.

The Society is reminding women 40 and older about the importance of getting a mammogram and clinical breast exam every year to find breast cancer in its earliest, most treatable stage.

More than 200,000 women will be diagnosed with breast cancer this year and more than 40,000 will die from the disease. That's why the American Cancer Society is fighting back against breast cancer in Hillsborough County.

Join the American Cancer Society on Saturday, October 23, 2010, at the 10th annual Making Strides Against Breast Cancer – a 5K, noncompetitive walk. Making Strides Against Breast Cancer is more than just the name of an event. It represents the progress being made to defeat this disease.

"According to the American Cancer Society, African-American women have a lower incidence rate of breast cancer than white women. Yet Black women are more likely to die of breast cancer than white women," said Lucinda Askew, a volunteer for the American Cancer Society. "We need to do something about this in our community and it starts with education."

Funds raised through this event will support the American Cancer Society's efforts to save lives by helping people stay well by preventing cancer or finding it early; helping people get well by being there for them during and after a cancer diagnosis; by finding cures through investment in groundbreaking research; and by fighting back by encouraging lawmakers to pass laws to defeat cancer and by rallying communities worldwide to join the fight.

Churches that have signed up as participants include: Center For Manifestation, Bible-Based of Temple Terrace, Beulah Baptist Institutional, Macedonia (Rev. Sykes), College Hill Church of God in Christ, New Dawn Restoration, New Heritage Christian, St. John Cathedral, 34th St. Church of God and Peace Baptist. Ms. Askew says there's still time to sign up. For additional information, please call (813) 966-4041.

Making Strides Against Breast Cancer, Saturday, October 23, 2010, St. Pete Times Forum, Downtown Tampa. Registration starts at 7:30 a.m.; the walk begins at 9 a.m. Sunday, October 17th, is set aside as "Pink Sunday." Women are encouraged to wear pink.

For more information on forming a team or participating in the walk, visit http://makingstrides.acsevents.org/hillsborough or call (813) 319-5929.

Rays Pay The Price For Victory

The Rays went into last Tuesday's game with the red hot Baltimore Orioles, needing one win to clinch a spot in the Major League Baseball playoffs. The Rays paid the price for victory. They moved pitching ace, David Price up in the pitching rotation in an effort to secure the victory.
Price's response was magnificent. The lanky, left-hander pitched eight innings of scoreless baseball. He allowed five hits, no runs and didn’t walk a batter. Ace reliever, Rafael Soriano pitched a scoreless ninth inning to seal the victory.

United States Seeks To Retain Ryder Cup
The United States is in a battle with the continent of Europe to retain the Ryder Cup. The two teams are captained by Corey Pavin and Colin Montgomerie. Some of the biggest names in golf are on both teams. The United States has names like Tiger Woods, Phil Mickelson, Steve Stricker, Jim Furyk, Dustin Johnson and Bubba Watson on their 12-member squad.

The Europeans have Luke Donald, Lee Westwood, Rory McIlroy, Padraig Harrington, Martin Kaynor, Gamma McDowell, Ian Poulter and Miguel Jimenez. The event is being played on European soil and the home team is favored to win. Don’t count the United States team out. The team has plenty of fire powers.

Bucs Have Weekend Off
The Tampa Bay Buccaneers have a bye-week and it comes at an opportune time. It gives the Bucs coaching staff time to evaluate the team, work on the team’s mistakes and make corrections. The Bucs started the season 2-0, but the victories were over two of the league’s weaker teams. Last week, the Bucs were soundly defeated by the Pittsburgh Steelers.

The score doesn’t matter. What does matter is the game gave the coaching staff a measuring stick of what it takes to compete against top teams and what they need to do in order to beat the teams that they can beat.

The Steelers are a veteran team with one of the league’s top defenses. Their quarterback, Charlie Batch is a veteran with a lot of experience at a starring quarterback with a lot of wins.

Tigers Dominate Rattlers In Dome

By Ted Taylor

On the second play of the 28th Atlanta Football Classic, the 54-0 fans in attendance in the Georgia Dome realized that eight years of frustration would be forgotten by the Tennessee State Tigers. In a victory that was worse than the final score indicated, the Tigers finally got a measure of revenge against Florida A & M 29-18.

Tigers running back Preston Byrd got the defensive line on the second play from scrimmage and 71 yards later, they were ahead 6-0. The point-after kick was no good but it would matter. When FAMU could not do anything on its possession minutes later the Tigers showed there would be no doubt of the outcome when lanky receiver Joseph Hills caught a 15-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Jeremy Perry to increase the first quarter lead to 13-0.

The victory was a Classic record-setter for Tennessee State, with Brown rushing for 233 yards on 28 carries. Also, the defense had a record-setting eleven sacks. FAMU was only able to gain 199 total yards.

Many were wondering if FAMU was already looking toward its biggest game of the season against South Carolina State next Saturday evening in Tallahassee. The Bulldogs only lost one game in three games has been against Georgia Tech. For the past few years, the Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference title has gone through the Bulldogs.
McNabb Expecting Warm Welcome Sunday

Sunday return to Lincoln Financial Field, at least "until the whistle blows and the game starts," he said. "Honestly, I think I will be more cheered," McNabb said Tuesday on his weekly radio show on ESPN-980 in Washington. "No matter what the situation is, right now I'm with a different team and it's a rival and it wasn't my choice. We had a successful 11 years. We had a lot of exciting plays and obviously some down times, but there were more exciting things in 11 years." McNabb also reiterated that "I wasn't the one looking to get out."

Dez Bryant Picks Up $55,000 Dinner Tab For Cowboys Teammates

- a friendly rookie hazing activity. The problem was that Williams also invited the defensive players to the meal.

The bill from Monday night's dinner at Pappas Bros. Steakhouse came to $54,896. "They got the young fella," Bryant's adviser David Wells, told the website. "What could he say? He had to pay it, unless he wanted to wash dishes for a month."

Watching his teammates order expensive bottles of wine and just about everything on the menu likely didn't help Bryant's stress-fractured rib feel any better. The team disclosed that Bryant played with that injury against Houston in Week 3.

Vick Is As Good As Ever

Michael Vick makes big plays with his arm instead of his legs. Vick's evolution as quarterback is summed up perfectly by the way he operated a hurry-up offense in Philadelphia's 28-3 win at Jacksonville on Sunday. He's no longer a run-first guy who quickly takes off with the ball if his primary option is covered. Rather, he's found success in the pocket.

Vick has an even bigger challenge coming up when the Eagles (2-1) host Washington (1-2) in Donovan McNabb's return to Philadelphia. But the way Vick is playing now, he might be a better fit for the Eagles than even McNabb, who led them to five NFC championship games in 11 seasons.
Judge Declares Mistrial in Buju Banton Drug Case

A Florida judge on Monday declared a mistrial for Jamaican reggae star Buju Banton, who was accused of conspiring to buy cocaine from an undercover police officer last year. U.S. District Judge C. James Moody made the decision after the 12-person jury sent him a second note saying they couldn’t reach a verdict. In an earlier note, jurors said they were having trouble reaching an agreement shortly after returning from a weekend recess. Moody then sent them back to keep trying. Deliberations had begun Thursday after a four-day trial. The jurors declined to tell reporters about their deliberations. Banton’s attorney has asked Moody to release Banton on bond. He has been held without bond since his Dec. 10 arrest. The attorneys and Moody discussed scheduling a new trial in December. Banton, a four-time Grammy nominee, had been charged with conspiracy to possess and distribute cocaine and aiding two others in possessing a firearm during the course of cocaine distribution. He faced up to life in prison.

Banton’s attorney, David Markus, had argued that the singer was entrapped by a U.S. government informant. “We were hoping to get a good verdict today. That said, 12 jurors did not believe Buju did it,” said Banton’s attorney, David Markus. “The government tried to prove its case beyond a reasonable doubt, and they did not do it.”

Minaj Fans Duped By Scam Artists

Nicki Minaj fans at at least two American colleges lined up to buy tickets to see her live on campus, but there was one problem: Minaj did not know about them. The news broke out after Minaj was sent a picture on Twitter of fans lining up to buy tickets to a concert of hers that wasn’t scheduled. Loads of students and eager fans were scammed.

The schools targeted were Michigan State University and Jackson State University. Minaj quickly added that her legal team was already on the case and that “way more schools that were scammed.”

TODAY'S BIRTHDAY - Your own imagination generates questions that are central to your happiness. Evaluate ideas first in seclusion. Then activate them throughout the year, one at a time, and measure progress regularly. Later dreams show where and when to change course.

Libra (Sept. 23-Oct. 22) - A younger person demands greater independence. You struggle with preconceptions about their maturity. Lengthen the leash in a half-life. Refocus your intention.

Scorpio (Oct. 23-Nov. 21) - Messages become garbled in transmission. Before you do anything, repeat back what you heard and clear up all questions. You'll be glad you did.

Capricorn (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) - You may worry over financial independence unnecessarily. A professional provides inspiration and advice, setting you in a new, positive direction.

Aquarius (Jan. 20-Feb. 18) - The fabulous outcome you anticipate can be yours. Love it.

Aries (March 21-April 19) - Divide your time between imaginative group activities and personal meditations. You need to sort out logical questions. Share results.

Taurus (April 20-May 20) - A casual meeting at a social event crystallizes an idea you have for a gift. You're certain that your partner will love it.

Gemini (May 21-June 20) - A casual meeting at a social event crystallizes an idea you have for a gift. You're certain that your partner will love it.

Cancer (June 21-July 22) - The month ends on a note of adaptation to the needs of others. You have a broader perspective about interdependence after today. Contribute and prosper.

Leo (July 23-Aug. 22) - An associate asks a tricky question, and you must resolve a problem now. Make sure you understand the details, before you blurt out your lucky response.

Virgo (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) - A co-worker suggests that you can do all the work yourself. You're not so sure. Ask questions and then divide it up more fairly.

Bus Driver Charged With Manslaughter, Released On $50,000 Bond

By Iris B. Holton
Sentinel City Editor

On Wednesday night, at 10 p.m., 37-year-old Trevor E. Dooley walked out of the Hillsborough County Jail after posting a $50,000 bond. He was arrested and charged with manslaughter with a firearm, improper exhibition of a firearm, and open carrying a firearm.

The Shooting

Dooley, a Hillsborough County School District bus driver, was arrested at his Valrico residence on Tuesday. He was charged in connection with the shooting death of 41-year-old David James.

According to police, on Sunday, September 6th, at around 3:45 p.m., James and his eight-year-old daughter were playing basketball in a neighboring park in Valrico. The park is located at the end of Partridge Point Trail. Dooley lived across the street from the park.

Witnesses told police that a 14-year-old approached James and asked if he could skateboard on the basketball court and James agreed. At this point, Dooley is alleged to have left his home, armed with the handgun, and told the teenager he was not allowed to skateboard.

Dooley is alleged to have left his driveway, walked across the street, and approached James. The two men met in the grass next to the basketball court. No oil has flowed into the Gulf for weeks. But we know this is just the beginning of our work. BP has taken full responsibility for the cleanup in the Gulf and that includes keeping you informed.

Restoring Gulf Communities
We can't undo this tragedy. But we can help people get back on their feet. We have been working with impacted communities since day one.

Partnering with local governments and community organizations, my job is to listen to people's needs and frustrations and find ways to help. We have 19 community centers and teams in four states, listening and helping.

Restoring The Economy
BP is here in Gulf communities with shrimpers, fishermen, hotel and restaurant owners, helping to make them whole.

More than 120,000 claim payments totaling over $375 million have already gone to people affected by the spill. We have committed a $20 billion independent fund to pay all legitimate claims, including lost incomes until people impacted can go back to work. And none of this will be paid by taxpayers.

BP has also given grants of $87 million to the states to help tourism recover and bring people back to the Gulf beaches.

Restoring The Environment
We're going to keep looking for oil and cleaning it up if we find it. Teams will remain in place for as long as it takes to restore the Gulf Coast.

And we've dedicated $500 million to work with local and national scientific experts on the impact of the spill and to restore environmental damage.

Thousands of BP employees have their roots in the Gulf. We support over 10,000 jobs in the region and people here are our neighbors. We know we haven't always been perfect, but we will be here until the oil is gone and the people and businesses are back to normal. We will do everything we can to make this right.

I was born in New Orleans. My family still lives here. We have to restore the Gulf communities for the shrimpers, fishermen, hotel and restaurant owners who live and work here.

First Annual Salute To Black Veterans Event Open To The Public

BY LEON B. CREWS
Sentinel Staff Writer

On Saturday, November 6th the Dale Mabry Campus of Hillsborough Community College will be the site of the first annual Salute to Black Veterans and Educational Forum.

Salute To Veterans, Incorporated, Bob Samuels, President, will host the event.

"Five years ago, we did a sale to Black veterans where we had several Tuskegee Airmen in attendance," said Samuels.

"We hadn't done it again since, and I asked about doing it again. I decided it would be different this year, and I'd put it on at HCC."

Samuels said many Black veterans aren't aware of the array of services available to them.

"There are 1.7 million veterans in Florida, 400,000 in Tampa, and close to 40,000 of them are Black."

"I will have 10 agencies at the forum offering services to veterans, and everyone is welcome, although the primary focus will be on Black veterans."

Samuels said education will come first in giving veterans information they need, especially the ones having post-traumatic war issues, suffering from Agent Orange, or other problems.

"We want to empower Black veterans through education. Veterans who have established successful businesses will be featured and the idea is to have success stories presented to the audience."

"As part of the salute, we will have a 92-year-old female veteran and the first Black Chief Warrant Officer. Also, some Black military achievers will be featured, and we'll have special medals made up to present to all the veterans."

Retired four-star General and the first Black Thunderbird pilot, Lloyd "Fig" Newton is in charge of putting the program together, and retired Colonel Irv Lee and retired Colonel Tonya Brickhouse will be featured along with others who've retired from service.

"African Americans have fought in every war this country has been involved in, but Black aren't mentioned or featured in its history," said Samuels.

"We have to do a better job of telling our story. We have a responsibility as a community to honor our veterans."

The event is open and free to all the veterans.

Forum Will Give Voters A Chance To Meet The Candidates

BY LEON B. CREWS
Sentinel Staff Writer

On Sunday, October 10th, United Voices For America will host the 2010 Tampa Bay Candidate Forum. Four counties, Hillsborough, Pinellas, Pasco, and Hernando, will be involved in the forum.

Co-Chairing the event with Ahmed Bedier, President of United Voices of America, will be Dr. Samuel Wright, Sr.

Dr. Wright said they are trying to get a cross section of the community to attend this vital forum.

"We have vital races, and we must make sure our people are educated and represent themselves at the polls as they did when President Obama was seeking office."

"We must take a more active role in local elections, and make sure the right people are representing our interests."

Republican, Democrat, and Independent candidates will be at the forum that's open for all candidates seeking office.

Dr. Wright said he can't stress enough the importance for African Americans to get out and vote.

"We need to know in advance who we're voting for and make sure they are held accountable. We need a loud voice who will best represent our interests."

The forum will feature area races at 4 p.m. and statewide races at 3:30 p.m., and will be held at Embassy Suites Hotel-USF, 3705 Spectrum Boulevard.

This forum is being held in partnership with the Tampa Bay Human Rights Council, Democracia, Hillsborough NAACP, and the Florida Consumer Action Network.

Clergy Returns To Pick Up Where He Left Off

BY LEON B. CREWS
Sentinel Staff Writer

Archbishop Willie Bolden and his wife, Pastor Glenda Bolden, have returned to the Tampa area after a six year journey that saw him open three churches on the west coast. Archbishop Bolden, who founded Rehoboth Church, said his first priority will be building the congregation back and working hard to rebuild the church.

"I will be working with a team of elders and deacons on this task. Our mission will be to get the people's eyes back toward evangelism. Some churches tend to become stodgy and forget their primary mission."

Archbishop Bolden said he's currently teaching classes on being disciples and also has plans to tie in with a bible college in Atlanta to create more community leaders.

"I think the church has totally gotten away from its purpose. We have to return to loving God and instilling family values that have been lost."

"People are beginning to understand that religion is the basis for all families and the root of all problem solving in the community. There has to be some structure and order in church, but room must be left for the spirit of God to be in control."

Archbishop Bolden was born in Mobile, Alabama. His father was moderator of a Baptist church, and when he turned 18, he wanted to experience the vices of the world.

"One night, I went to a place I thought was a club and it was a prayer meeting. God spoke to me there and told me that was my last chance. I gave myself to Christ and I haven't looked back since."

Archbishop Bolden was ordained in Ft. Wayne, Indiana at the Christian Training Center. After graduating, he was ordained by Bishop Paul E. Paino. From there while in Bible College, he started Calvary Chapel and that grew to 2,000 members.

"I left in 1969 and left my brother in charge. We came to Tampa and started Lighthouse Christian Fellowship in 1990 that later became Rehoboth."

In 1995 Archbishop Benson Idaho2sa ordained Bishop Bolden as an Archbishop.
Why Me, Lord?
Over the next lessons we will study the Psalms. Psalms is not a book as other books. Psalms is a collection of hymns written about God with each Psalm concluding that God is to be praised. Many people think that David wrote all the Psalms. David was not the only author. He was one of seven and is attributed to having written about seventy-two of them.

The subject of the Psalm is not the situation that the psalmist finds himself. The psalms were not written to let the reader dwell on the uncomfortable circumstances of life but rather to let them know that regardless of what you are faced with God is worthy to be praised.

This week’s Psalm, Psalm 8, speaks to the majesty of God. The psalmist tells the reader to use to His strength and is excellent at what he is doing. God is so awesome and powerful he was referring to.

He also brings clarity by including himself. He let it be known that the Lord in which he was referring was also HIS Lord. David knew from personal experience that God was his and his God was excellent.

The church today must be able to know that God is their God and that He is excellent. Worshipping and serving God is about a personal and individual relationship and you must know Him for yourself.

David moves the reader to see the awesomeness of God by letting the readers know that from babies and infants God can get His glory (vs. 2). God is so awesome and powerful that he can use the weakest of creation to perform His will. God has no respect of person to use to His strength and majesty.

David moves the reader from thinking about babies and infants to consider the universe. He goes from talking about a cute cuddly baby to considering the universe. The same God who made a baby is the same God who created the cosmic universe. When you consider the awesomeness of God He makes babies who cannot talk and do not know much, know how to communicate with the tone and pitch of their cry. This same God is able to make the earth spin over one thousand miles per hour and yet keep you planted safe on the ground.

When David considered babies, infants, and the universe, he had to ask the question, “What is man that You mindful of him?” You do not find people with significant influence and power associating with common, everyday, folk.

But here, God who is excellent, majestic, and powerful cares about all of His creation. Who are you that God cares about you? You are His creation. You are His workmanship. You are the one He has given dominion over all that He has created on the earth. God has blessed you and bestowed upon you a crown of glory.

When you consider all the worlds God has made and all of His creation, it is easy to conclude that He is excellent and He is worthy to be praised!

School Removed From State Board’s Accountability System

BY IRIS B. HOLTON
Sentinel City Editor

The State of Florida Board of Education recently removed a Hillsborough County School from its Differenitated Accountability System. Hillsborough County Public School Superintendent MaryEllen Elia made the request.

Owen Young, Principal of Middleton High School, said, “I see a lot happening and we are very optimistic. We are going to continue moving in a positive direction.”

Ms. Elia said, Principal Owen Young has made a concerted effort to increase community and parent support for the school. Middleton, which has never received an F grade under the state’s accountability system, received a D grade in 2009. The 2010 school grades for high schools has not been released by the state.

The district provided documentation showing Middleton increased the percentage of student subgroups making adequate yearly progress (AYP) from 64 percent to 87 percent.

Middleton also had at least one subgroup make AYP in reading and one in math, which are two requirements for removal from the Intervene category of Differenitated Accountability.

At the same time, the school saw an increase in student GPA, an increase in the number of students with a 2.6 GPA or higher, and a 6.1 percent increase in the number of students taking at least one Advanced Placement class.

Nearly half of the students said they feel safe at school, and teachers and staff have reported a significant improvement in communication, relationships, leadership, and support systems from 2008-09 to 2009-10.

Owen Young, Principal at Middleton High School, received a D grade in 2009. The 2010 school grades for high schools has not been released by the state.

The waiver will allow the Middleton removed a Hillsborough County School from its Differenitated Accountability System.

The State of Florida Superintendent MaryEllen Elia made the request.

State Rep. Betty Reed (D-59) will host the first of several “Community Forum” for the residents of District 59. The first forum will take place in Progress Village on Tuesday, October 12th, at St. James AME Church, 5202 86th Street South from 6 p.m. until 8 p.m.

Rep. Reed said, “I made a promise to my constituents that I would host a forum that everyone could attend and participate in a discussion on important issues facing residents in District 59 and the State of Florida.”

In addition to the Community Forums, Rep. Reed is also planning to host a “Constituent Day.”

Dirty Rice

Try Zatarain's Dirty Rice mix with ground beef and/or sausage for a delicious alternative.

F.Y.I. - Don’t worry, it’s only a name. Dirty rice isn’t actually dirty—it’s called that because the chicken gizzards and livers that it is traditionally made with gives it a brown or “dirty” color.

Most common in regions of Southern Louisiana and Mississippi, it’s similar to pilaf in its use of the holy trinity of New Orleans cooking that includes green bell pepper, celery and onion, a.k.a., a rue. Then meat is added, and the whole thing is garnished with green onions and parsley.

Family Commitment

"In family life, love is the oil that eases friction, the cement that holds things together, and the music from the noisy situations that eases friction, the cement that holds things together, and the music from the noisy situations that hold in there and learn to make music from the noisy situations life may bring to your family."

As you position your family to win beyond 2010 you cannot allow a crisis to create conflict that will tear your family apart. Instead, seek to gain strength from other family members so that you may be drawn closer together. Winning families are committed to each other. They do not abandon the family ship and say every man for himself during times of a storm or struggle.

New Pictures, Details Surface In Bishop Eddie Long Scandal

A day after he told his congregation he would fight the scandalous allegations being levied against him, more pictures have surfaced which appear to show megachurch pastor Bishop Eddie Long and some Longfellow Youth Academy pupils at the preacher's private midtown office.

Bishop Long owns a million dollar penthouse in the city's district.

The source at the posh Twelve Atlantic Station cites several employees and residents that have noted that Long's visitors at the location have predominantly been young men.

As previously reported, four men have filed lawsuits claiming that while they were teens; they were coerced into sexual relationships with Long after being chosen as his "spiritual sons" at New Birth Missionary Baptist Church.

The men who are now in their early 20s claim that while they were members of Long's Longfellow Youth Academy, the Bishop would lavish them with gifts and overseas trips in order to compel them into sexual relations.

Bishop Long is known for his stark revulsion of gays and gay rights.

CNN Anchor Don Lemon Admits: 'I Was Abused By A Pedophile As A Child'

CNN anchor Don Lemon has spoken out about being a victim of molestation when he was a young man.

The revelations occurred on CNN during a segment on Bishop Eddie Long when Lemon said the alleged words of Long are similar to those he heard as a victim of pedophilia.

"I am admitting something that I have never admitted on TV...I too was a victim of a pedophile who was much older than I was as a child. The words they used were 'you're not gay if you do this', are some of the same things my abuser said to me."

CNN Anchor Don Lemon

Bishop Long's Flock Standing By Him Amid Sex Scandal

LITHONIA, GA — Many followers of embattled Baptist megachurch leader Bishop Eddie Long remained unwavering in their support as the pastor vowed to fight like David versus Goliath against claims he lured four young men into sex.

Cheryl Barnett, who has attended New Birth since Long became senior pastor more than 20 years ago, said she was "very much filled with what he had to say." "It was simple. It was direct. He's standing in the scriptures. That's what we would expect from our minister," she said.

During the second service, however, one young man in a blue shirt stood up and shouted: "We want the truth, man!" He was quickly escorted out and did not return.

Long became one of the country's most powerful independent church leaders over the last 20 years, turning a congregation of 150 into a 25,000-member powerhouse with a $60 million cathedral and a roster of parishioners that includes athletes, entertainers and politicians. And there was almost no sign Sunday that his flock wanted to turn him away.
