Four New Buildings Due For Completion by 1963

Residence Hall Complex Will House Cafeteria

BY WING PREDOM

University of South Florida is about to be the center of a big building boom as four new buildings are to be under construction in the next two years. The new buildings are scheduled to be completed in 1963.

The new buildings will be the Residence Hall Complex, which will house the cafeteria. The Residence Hall Complex will be completed by the end of 1962 and the cafeteria will be opened in the spring of 1963.

The Residence Hall Complex will be completed by the end of 1962 and the cafeteria will be opened in the spring of 1963. The Residence Hall Complex will house 1,200 students and will be the largest residence hall in the State of Florida.

The cafeteria will be located in the center of the Residence Hall Complex and will be able to serve 3,000 meals per day. The cafeteria will also have a capacity for 1,200 people to be seated at once.

The new buildings will be funded by a $1.5 million appropriation from the State of Florida. The appropriation was approved by the Florida Legislature in 1961.

The new buildings will be designed by the firm of S. E. Monteith and B. P. Daniel, who are well known for their work in the field of educational architecture.

The new buildings will be constructed by the firm of A. C. Thomas and Sons, who are well known for their work in the field of construction.

The new buildings will be completed in 1963 and will be ready for occupancy in the fall of 1963.

The new buildings will be a significant addition to the University of South Florida and will provide much-needed facilities for the students and faculty of the University.

The new buildings will be located on the University of South Florida campus and will be a focal point for the activities of the University.

150 Participate In USF Rush Week

By VIRGINIA MONTES

Every evening last week students could be seen hurrying in and out of the Ingraham and Killian buildings of the Student Union. This was the internal spring rush for USF fraternal activities. Greek and social fraternities were competing in the hope of expanding their membership with new students.

With enough nautical knowledge to set sail with the university again last week in a work to collect more data for the future edition of The Tampa Times, a refereed scholarly journal brought to the students.

Lecture Cancelled As Inappropriate

The American Nazi council lecture scheduled for Feb. 27 and open to the public was canceled by the USF administration. Dr. Jerome Prince, former professor at Yale Divinity School, was invited by pressure groups to be until last because of a protest against the event. The university president, Robert G. Giddings, was quoted as saying that the talk of Dr. Prince was canceled because where censorship is the goal, there is no free speech. A group of students who would sponsor a nazi theme class at the university was invited.

What They Need

Dr. Prince who has been speaking across the country on presidential topics, was invited to give the university a lecture on this subject. The administration was quoted as saying that it was not possible to allow a speech by a professor who would attend an object a student.

Dining Halls, Freshman Dorms

This does not mean that the administration was against all of them. They were quoted as saying that they are against all of them.

Tennis Tournaments

The University of South Florida Tennis Tournament will be held March 10-12 at the University of South Florida. The event will take place in the University Park area. The venue will be located in the center of the city. A variety of activities will be held, including a dance, a game, and a cookout.
