Residents Thankful For Life, Family This Holiday Season

BY IRIS B. HOLTON
Sentinel City Editor

The state of the economy is on the minds of many as we approach this Thanksgiving Holiday. Some Sentinel readers shared their comments about what they are thankful for this year.

Fire Chief Tom Forward said, "This Thanksgiving, I am thankful for a tremendous faith in God, for my lovely and always supportive wife, Cynthia, and our three children and my close family and friends."

"I am equally grateful for the tremendous opportunities that this great city has afforded me to grow personally and professionally and to finally be able to give back in such a manner as I am able. For this cause, I live eternally in the red."

Ms. Ann Jenkins said, "I am thankful to God for just being the awesome God He is. I think Him for waking me up each morning and giving me the mental clarity and the opportunity to make a difference in my community."

"I make the work that I do a positive expression, I am forever thankful, and on this Thanksgiving, I am going to enjoy bringing to life the unique value that is mine to create. Happy Thanksgiving to all God's children."

Ally Clinton Paris said, "With all the turmoil in the world and what is not right with America, I am still very thankful to live in the greatest country in the world at the greatest time in history. This is our moment in history and we must honor our forefathers by doing what is required to ensure that future generations enjoy the same prosperity that we have been blessed to enjoy."

Ms. Lillian Stringer said, "I am thankful for life, health and strength and the love of my family."

Danny Green said, "I'm thankful for being alive and spending time with my mother and other family members, and I donate money to families in need every year."

"In addition, travel to New York City for Macy's Parade, which I do every year on Thanksgiving Day. I thank the Lord for my health and a good job."

Ms. Ann Porter said, "I am very thankful this Thanksgiving. I thank God for being a six-year survivor of breast cancer, for having the honor of being the mother of a successful child and wonderful aspirations for 6-grandchildren."

"God has given me the comfort of being accepted at a spirit-filled church and many, many friends and relatives in all walks of life. Finally, God has allowed me to live to see our people come from the out-house to the White House."

Ms. Linda Smart said, "I have so many things to be thankful for! What particularly comes to mind is how God gives us insight on where we need to go on a daily basis, and how He encourages and helps us to exercise wisdom."

"I Thessalonians 5:18 the Apostle Paul writes: 'In everything give thanks: for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus concerning you.' We, as a community, should celebrate being thankful each and every day!"

Ms. Tina Wright said, "I am thankful for my deliverance and the free will to accept it."

Billy Wheeler said, "I am thankful in knowing without a doubt that no matter what situation life may bring, God is in ultimate control and He will perform that good thing which He has promised."

Ms. Twanda Bradley said, "Every morning I thank God for the breath of life. This Thanksgiving, in addition to thanking God for my family and friends, I thank Him for strengthening the love and unity of my church family (St. James AME) and our new pastor, Rev. Michael B. Price."

Howard Harris said, "I am thankful because I have lived long enough to know: when you're down on your luck no matter how bad your life sucks, there's always someone else who has it even worse."

Ms. Sonia Franklin said, "Thanksgiving has always meant a time for me to reflect on how good God has been to me and my family. I'm thankful that the lack of us having some things today, makes us just that more thankful for family and friends, our true blessings."

"In all things give, 'Thanks unto the Lord, for He is good.' Happy Thanksgiving."

Ronnie Mooer said, "I am thankful to have a God that blesses me with the things that I need. Some may say that my needs are small. To me, they are big, because I didn't get them by myself. It is God, who blesses me through other people. May God bless you all and have a Happy Thanksgiving Day."

Ms. Janelle McGregor said, "I'm most thankful for my mom. She's always there for me even when I feel like I know what's best and go against her advice."

"Then when my decisions don't pan out the way I thought they would, she helps me to get back on my feet. I don't say this often, but "Mom I truly appreciate and admire you."

James Ransom said, "I am thankful for the love of family, good health and friendship. I am thankful for being in a country where you can make difference regardless of your socio-economic status."

"I am thankful and grateful for those who came before us, those who made the ultimate sacrifice so that we could live a better life today. During this Thanksgiving season, I am also thankful to God to be able to join others in the ongoing battle for justice and equality because the struggle continues."

New District 3 County Commissioner Ready To Get Started

BY LEON B. CREWS
Sentinel Staff Writer

New Hillsborough County District 3 Commissioner, Les Miller, said he’s always been prepared to hit the ground running if he was successful in gaining the seat. Now that he has officially been sworn in, Comm. Miller said the top priority in his district is jobs, and that will be his focus.

“To bring in jobs to my district, we need economic developments. That’s what I want to work on with my colleagues and the private sector. District 3 has been neglected too long when it comes to economic development. We must also insist the new businesses hire people who live in the area.”

“Also, there’s a need to create more affordable housing. Live spoken to my colleagues, and they know where I stand.”

Floridians At The Mercy Of Republicans

If things don’t get better in Florida, or if conditions get worse, the citizens of Florida will have nobody to blame but themselves and their Republican legislators. Tallahassee, Florida, the home of the Capitol and the center of government for the state is completely controlled by Republicans.

The speaker of the House, the president of the Senate, the governor, and all members of the State Cabinets are Republicans. The Republicans also have a veto proof majority in both Houses of the Florida Legislature.

What does this all mean? It means the Republicans can do anything they want and Democrats are powerless to stop them.

This is not a good time to be a Democrat in Tallahassee. They have nothing less than the hospitality of Republicans approve, and they can’t stop anything Republicans want to do.

since the Stamp Act has any party held this type of dominance.

The party of the Republicans are already showing their political arrogance. Last Tuesday at a special session in Tallahassee, the Republicans could not find a way to overturn their new, recently obtained political muscle. In what they called a message to outgoing Governor Charlie Crist, they moved to overturn a couple of bills that the lame duck governor had vetoed.

It is frightening to think about the kind of stuff that will come out of this Republican political haven over the next two years. Women will have to worry because the Republicans may try to make it more difficult to exercise their right guaranteed by Roe.

Teachers have to worry because the legislature made it illegal to pass a bill that will decrease public school funding.

and better yet, will pass a version of the vetoed Senate Bill 6. Such a bill could abolish tenure and tie teachers pay directly to student performance.

That’s not all, education has to worry this Legislature will enable the rich to tap into even more public funds and students into private schools. Poor people need to be afraid because the Republicans will cut social programs.

At the risk of sounding funny, I have to say the rich have to worry. The rich have to worry because this Legislature will enact legislation that will allow the rich to make so much money until they will have trouble hiding it from the Internal Revenue Service.

I warn you not to underestimate the damage this bill could do. Ultra conservatives can do anything.

I believe that I can truly say to the average Floridian to hold on to their hats because for the next two years, we are in for a wild ride.

I remember when the legislature passed the “sale tax” in 1977, in the House of Congress and the White House. That was the beginning of the mess that we are in now.

Look around you. The rich got richer and the poor got poorer.

The Sole-Man Speaks
By Pat Kennedy

The Lynching Of Charlie Crist

hose of us who’ve been around for a while know a lynching when we see it. We know what people mean when they write a bloody, hate-filled comment in a newspaper article. "I ain't nothing personal." So, when I and my partners on the step read what newly invested Republicans had in mind to do to former Gov. Charlie Crist’s vetoes, we pleaded at each other and laughed, especially when Republican pundits swore on their mothers’ graves, "I ain't nothing personal." Ha-haah! Pass me the splotton!

Here! You look at it yourself. Regardless of the fact more recent national articles state real Republican legislators have recanted their initial pledge to clean house up in Tallahassee. Is that the truth? When you read the printed work is once it’s printed, you can’t take it back. So, the history of a Republican blood purge still stands and it includes most all of the 18 vetoes Crist made and the 370 million dollars he refused to spend, to the utter anger of his then-fellow Republicans.

No doubt humming a modern version of the “Battle Hymn of the Republic,” Republican legislators went early to Tallahassee to overturn — among other things — everything Crist told them he couldn’t overturn.

Off goes Crist’s embargo against offshore drilling! Down goes Crist’s refusal to phase out tenure for public school teachers! Boom goes Crist’s blockade against requiring women seeking abortions to have ultrasound testing. Splat goes Crist’s veeto against ignoring environmental concerns. And most idiotic, Kaboom goes Crist’s unobjectionable, and spend $31 million dollars in federal stimulus funds!

Now, why would Republican freshmen be afraid because the Republicans have broken out their dancing shoes as they now prepare to compromise with the rich political haven over the hill so that they can help make the rich even richer?

As a first time offender myself, I knew what Vick was going through. I hated the fact that his actions put him on a path towards something I wouldn’t wish on my worst enemy, (then again, I probably wouldn’t mind my worst enemy experiencing some of this).

But, I also knew that Vick was smart enough to learn from his mistakes and that being incarcerated would give him a much greater appreciation for life and freedom. Unfortunately, there were a lot of people who didn’t share my optimistic view point.

When Vick was released, he was viewed as a pariah throughout the NFL community. No one wanted anything to do with him.

Even teams who were in desperate need of his services were scared to touch him. There just wasn’t a market willing to deal with the backlash of embracing someone who they saw as cold-blooded enough to drown Lassie.

They didn’t see the man who had served his debt to society and who desperately wanted to prove himself a changed individual. They were blinded by the controversy and the fear of having their games bombarded with picket signs.

'Project Safe Neighborhood' To Address Gun Safety

KIM MINER
BY LEON B. CREWS
Sentinel Staff Writer

On Friday (today) at 3 p.m., DACCO’s Weed and Seed Haven along with the East Tampa Weed and Seed Steering Committee will host “Project Safe Neighborhood” at the NFL YET Center on the corner of 54th Street and Lake Avenue.

East Tampa Weed and Seed Coordinator, Kim Miner, said they will be trying to get kids to make a pledge to gun safety.

“We will have McGruff, The Crime Dog, and Tampa Police officers will provide gun safety training.

“This is very crucial, and parents are encouraged to make sure their children attend this event. Gun safety isn’t something that’s talked about much, but there is a dire need for it, especially with more people in homes arming themselves for safety.”

Project Safe Neighborhood is just one of several initiatives that will be made available to the public through DACCO’s Weed and Seed Safe Haven and the East Tampa Weed and Seed group.

Middle Schools Changed To 'All Boys,' And 'All Girls' Schools

BY IRIS B. HOLTON  Sentinel City Editor

The Hillsborough County School Board recently approved changes that will affect six middle schools next year. These changes will create two single gender middle schools in East Tampa.

Changes for the upcoming school year will transform Franklin Middle Magnet School to an All-Boys Academy and Ferrell Middle Magnet School to an All-Girls Academy.

The changes for Franklin are being undertaken in part by an $11.5 million grant over the next 3 years.

The Hillsborough County School District is underwriting the changes for Franklin Magnet School and Young Middle Magnet School will become Creative Science Schools.

The students will matriculate from Lockhart to Young.

Two other middle schools who will undergo changes in the fall are Rola Park K-8 and Walker Middle School. Both of these schools will become Schools of International Studies.

Ms. Linda Cobbe, spokesperson for the Hillsborough County Public School District said the International Studies Program is a pre-requisite for the International Baccalaurate Program.

Radio Show Hosts To Give Away Free Turkeys

BY LEON B. CREWS
Sentinel Staff Writer

This Saturday, November 20th, the radio show, "Honest Opinion, Keeping It Real, and Making It Happen," will give away free turkeys.

For nearly a year, the radio show, hosted by Hakim "The Dream" Aquil and co-hosted by Jarvis El-Amin, has given their listeners more than just quality broadcasting.

“Our show focuses on topics that educate, inform, enlighten, and positively motivate people,” said Aquil.

“Some of our previous shows have included serious discussions on women's health, fair and balanced political analysis, protecting consumers, and local community issues.”

The focus of this week’s show will be the beauty of charity. One the show, those who have recently given back to the community will be featured.

“Knowing that action speaks louder than words, we will show the true beauty of charity by giving away a free turkey every 15 minutes on the show,” said El-Amin.

“This particular week was chosen for the giveaway, because this is the week Muslims around the world celebrate their religious holiday, Eid-Al-Adha. For Muslims, this holiday commemorates the end of the Hajj, the annual Muslim pilgrimage to Mecca, which is one of the greatest religious observances in Islam.”

On Eid-Al-Adha, Muslims also remember and commemorate the trials and triumphs of the Prophet Abraham by providing food to those in need.

“Since we are also nearing Thanksgiving, the show wanted to give away turkeys to help those in the community happily celebrate their holiday as well,” said Aquil.

Honest Opinion, Keeping It Real, and Making It Happen airs Saturday mornings from 9 a.m. to 10 a.m. on WTMP 1150AM.

Tampa Artist To Perform In Big Show

BY LEON B. CREWS
Sentinel Staff Writer

No matter what you may have heard or seen, Khia assures everyone that she's been working hard, touring, and having a ball.

Khia (born Khia Chambers) is just about finished with her 6th album, and has just returned from a tour in Greece.

"I really feel great at this point of my career. I have a live band and I'm much more involved in the finished product than in the past. I'm also doing more singing, and not as much rapping.

"My desire has always to be a singer. I'm not really a rapper."

"I really don't get a lot from today's artists. I do understand that longevity is important in this industry, and when you look at the success of the older artists, you'll see they're still in hot demand while the others have faded away.

Khia said the industry today isn't as tough for women as it was in the past. "Technology and your own motivation can make you successful. As an independent artist coming out of Tampa, I think I've had fun and enjoyed a lot of success."

Khia's new album, "Been A Bad Girl," features material she wrote, and repre-sents what she calls the real Khia and the kind of music she's always intended to perform.

"If there's one constant in this industry, it's that some women still feel the need to present themselves sexually to be successful along with their talent. I think I'm beautiful the way I am."

"I don't respect the women that turn themselves into something they're not just to attract an audience. I think they pressure themselves into taking that route because they just aren't patient enough to put in the time and energy and do it the right way."

Khia said she'll be performing for her hometown with live shows on Channel-side at the Imax and at the Improv in Orlando.

"I want everyone to come out and support the music. I just want to perform all over the world with my band and continue to associate with the real pioneers of the industry. I want to continue evolving."

Khia said she has to give a lot of credit to Too Smooth and his promotion team.

"Too Smooth is one of the original promoters, and has done a lot to help me and my career over the years."

On Sunday, December 6th, Too Smooth Entertainment will be bringing you "Welcome Back Khia, Live In Concert" at Studio Inc., 3603 West Waters Avenue. Also featured will be Jack-boy from St. Petersburg and Ganksta from Tampa.

For more information about this show and upcoming events, visit the website at www.toosmoothent.com, or call (813) 244-7474.

The Splendor Of A Florida Classic Weekend

The Florida Classic, an annual football battle between Florida A&M and Bethune Cookman, takes place this weekend. This event brings grads and friends of both schools from all over the country. The event is like a big family reunion right up until game time. Then the rivalry begins.

The game pits husbands against wives, siblings against each other, neighbors against each other and friends against each other. Once the game is over, the celebration resumes and the bragging begins for the winners. The event is a fashion show. People are dressed in all the latest fashions and strutting proudly for all to see.

The Orlando, Florida event features two of the finest university bands in the universe, the 'Marching 100' known internationally and the Wildcat Marching Band of Cookman. These two bands engage in the battle of the bands and they put on quite a show.

It is worth the price of admission just to see these two great bands perform.

I have been told that in recent years, attendance at the Florida Classic has been falling off. I heard that people still come to Orlando, they just don't come to the game. People might be less inclined to come because the game is believed to be a blowout in the making.

The Cookman Wildcats are a perfect 10-0 on the season and 7-0 in the conference. For the most part, the Wildcats have been blowing their opponents out. The FAMU Rattlers are 7-3 on the season and 6-1 in the conference. The Rattlers have won most of their games by small margins. From all indications, this game appears to be a sure Cookman win.

Bucs Take Ge-3 Record On The Road Against The 49ers

There is no Joe Montana or Steve Young under center for the San Francisco 49ers anymore. This Sunday at 4:05 p.m., the Tampa Bay Buccaneers will be looking at Alex Smith or Troy Smith when they come to town to face the 2-6 49ers.

With his job on the line, 49ers head coach, Mike Singletary, hopes his team can compete with the Bucs and he will be able to win a double dose of his ground game, featuring Frank Gore. The Bucs are coming off a spectacular win against the Carolina Panthers, and quarterback Josh Freeman is no longer a best kept secret to opposing defenses. The Bucs also appear to have gotten their running game going, altogether with both Carnell "Cadillac" Williams and LeGarrette Blount turning in top performances last week.

In the weak NFC West, the St. Louis Rams share the division lead with the Seattle Seahawks with 4-4 records.

Look for a big game from Buccaneers wide receivers Arrelious Benn and Mike Williams, and for rookie defensive lineman Gerald McCoy to continue to improve.

Head Coach Raheem Morris has gone on record as saying his team is the best in the NFC, and hasn't backed off that claim in spite of a loss to the NFC South Division leading Atlanta Falcons two weeks ago.

Middleton's New Basketball Coach Ready To Get Started

BY LEON B. CREWS
Sentinel Staff Writer

G. S. Middleton High School’s new head basketball coach, Darius Ford, said he’s ready to get started.

Ford came to Middleton from Orlando Jones, where he coached and taught. At Middleton, he’s now in the process of conducting tryouts.

“I have some great 3-sport athletes and I’m splitting the junior varsity and varsity players to see what I’ve got to work with,” Ford said.

“When it comes to my athletes, their grades are the most important thing to me. I monitor that along with their behavior. I also support my athletes in their other sports. I also do my weekly summaries to determine their eligibility.”

Ford has been coaching for 11 years. He is a 1988 graduate of Hillborough High School where he played football, basketball, and ran track.

“I attended Garden City Community College in Kansas, then played football at Florida State University. I graduated from Evangel University in Missouri with a degree in History.”

Ford said he got a chance to coach in junior college with a little league baseball team.

“I played baseball with the Belmont Heights Little League, and played with Gary Sheffield, Derek Bell, Maurice Crum, Carl Everett and others. I’ve managed to stay in contact with most of them over the years.

“I originally wanted to play college basketball, but ended up playing football. My basketball coaching experience started when I was in junior college at the Boys and Girls Club.”

Ford said he wanted to coach either football, basketball, baseball or track.

“I think I have more of a basketball body, and thought that was better suited for me.”

“As far as this year’s Middleton team, we want to be above .500 and make the district playoffs. Those are our goals. We also want an overall 2-5 GPA or better.”

Ford said he stressed to the students that education will always come first.

“I have a great rapport with the parents of my players, and they understand how important an education is.”

Browns To Sign Ex-Buc Clifton Smith

CLIFTON SMITH

CLEVELAND, OH – The Cleveland Browns have agreed to contract terms with former Pro Bowl kick returner Clifton Smith.

Smith was released earlier this season by Miami, and worked out for the Browns on Tuesday, said the person who spoke.

The Browns need a kick returner after Pro Bowler Joshua Cribbs dislocated toes in Sunday’s loss to the New York Jets. Cribbs could be out for sometime, leaving rookie Joe Haden as Cleveland’s primary returner.

Redskins Have Out Clause

LANDOVER, MD — Nothing is straightforward about Donovan McNabb these days. It turns out the $40 million he is supposed to be guaranteed in his new contract could turn out to be a mere $3.5 million.

McNabb’s agent, Fletcher Smith, clarified some of the details of McNabb’s deal on Tuesday. He says while the contract is worded so that it has “$40 million in guarantees,” the Redskins do have an option to cut McNabb at the end of the season with no further money due.

McNabb receives a $3.5 million bonus this year as part of the new agreement, but the rest of the five-year, $78 million package would come to naught if the team decides to cut ties.

Oden Out For Rest Of Season

PORTLAND, OR – Trail Blazers center Greg Oden, the former No. 1 draft pick whose short career has been marred by injuries, will not play this season.

Oden hasn’t played since last December because he needed surgery to repair a fractured left patella. The Blazers say this operation, announced Wednesday night and scheduled for Friday in Vail, Colo., will repair damaged cartilage and is unrelated to the patella injury.

Seahawks DE Raheem Brock Arrested In DUI

SEATTLE – Seattle Seahawks defensive end Raheem Brock was arrested for investigation of driving under the influence just hours before the Seahawks traveled to Arizona to face the Cardinals.

Washington State Patrol Trooper Julie Startup confirmed Brock was arrested early Saturday morning in Seattle.

Brock played in Seattle’s 36-18 win over Arizona. Seahawks coach Pete Carroll said Monday he didn’t know about Brock’s arrest until after Sunday’s game. Carroll says he spoke with Brock on Monday morning and the team will deal with it once all the information has been obtained.

Brock has 13 tackles and three sacks for Seattle this season.

Eva Longoria Files For Divorce From Tony Parker

LOS ANGELES – Eva Longoria filed court papers Wednesday to divorce basketball star Tony Parker, citing irreconcilable differences.

Longoria, a star of TV’s “Desperate Housewives,” and Parker, an NBA All-Star with the San Antonio Spurs, were married July 7, 2007. They have no children together.

According to a press release from the TV show “Extra,” Longoria told show host and longtime friend Mario Lopez that she found hundreds of text messages from another woman on Parker’s phone, who turned out to be Erin Barry the soon-to-be ex-wife of Brent Barry, an ex-teammate of Parker.

Longoria also told Lopez that her now estranged husband cheated on her earlier in the marriage with yet another woman, with whom he kept in touch via Facebook, according to the release.

“She is devastated, she wants us all to know that,” Lopez said. “But she’s strong.”

In the court filing, Longoria requested that her name be restored to Eva Jacqueline Longoria. She had taken Parker’s name when they married.
Wesley Snipes Argues For New Trial In Florida

Snipes did not attend the hearing Monday in a federal court in Ocala. His attorneys say he deserves a new trial because of jury bias in his 2008 conviction. They say two jurors are now accusing other jurors of deciding the case without hearing evidence. They also say prosecutors hid damaging information about a key witness.

Federal prosecutors on Monday said questioning those jurors about their deliberations would violate juror rules and intimidate future juries.

The star of the "Blade" trilogy faces a three-year prison sentence. Snipes has been free on bond while appealing.

WESLEY SNIPES

Ocala, FL - Federal attorneys have asked a central Florida judge to revoke Wesley Snipes' bond if the actor is not granted a new trial for tax evasion.

NEW YORK - The initial U.S. shipment of Michael Jackson's "Michael," due December 14 on Epic Records, is 900,000, according to retail sources.

Record label Sony is projecting first-week CD sales of 340,000 and digital album sales of 60,000.

That projection is similar to debut-week sales of Jackson's album "This Is It," though that album had the marketing strength of a major motion picture behind it.

"This Is It" sold 375,000 units in its first week and has sold 1.6 million units since its release in October 2009, according to Nielsen SoundScan.

Second week projections for "Michael," are set at 280,000 units, while digital sales are expected to slip from its debut week percentage of 15% to 8%.

Playgirl Says They Turned Down Kanye West Nude Photos

Playgirl, the famed women's adult magazine, is making headlines for speaking on Kanye West's leaked nude photos.

A rep for the publication has revealed that the magazine turned down the opportunity to publish nude photos of Kanye West before they hit the net in late October.

According to Playgirl, they were offered the now infamous pictures of Kanye West exposing himself in his boxer shorts, but decided against it.

A spokesman for the mag tells E Online, "It would have cost us $100,000, and we said no. We should have said yes."

Rappers In Jail? It's All Our Fault, Simmons Says

Lil Wayne was just released from his stay at Riker's Island. T.I. is on his way back to jail for violating his probation. Wiz Khalifa might be on his way to the slammer too.

And it's all your fault, says Russell Simmons.

"Simmons, co-founder of Def Jam Records, says it's his fault and society's fault that our favorite rappers are making poor decisions.

In a recent interview with an Atlanta's radio station, Simmons said that the glorification of crime in hip-hop has made bad behavior "more acceptable."

He bases his claims on the idea that society consists of consumers who have control over the market, and that the albums we buy speak to not only what we want to hear, but also what we expect and accept in our community.

If consumers stopped purchasing hip-hop filled with lyrics about domestic abuse and gun violence, a shift would occur. "We got these images out of the streets," Simmons said to V-103. "The violence, the things they talk about are topics we chose."

Not all the rappers are bad people, Simmons said. They have the ability to inact positive decisions in members of our community as well. Rapper T.I., who recently received an 11-month prison sentence for drug possession, recently talked down a man from jumping off a building in Atlanta.

"T.I. is very insightful. He's a good person," Simmons said. "These guys are learning their lesson in front of the world. And it's a good thing they're growing up before us. Otherwise, they might not have grown up at all."
Killer Mike Refutes Involvement In Kidnapping, Assault Allegations

Atlanta rapper Mike Bigga (formerly known as Killer Mike) is speaking out to clear his name in a recent lawsuit filed against T.I. and a number of his associates in the alleged beating of a studio engineer. Bigga recently told the Atlanta Journal Constitution, "These allegations are 100 percent false...While I don't want these false allegations to tarnish my legacy as a rapper, I'm far more concerned with the impact this will have on the youth I frequently mentor and counsel."

Norris Gresham, an Atlanta sound engineer has filed a lawsuit against T.I. claiming that he was beaten by the rapper's associates when they accused him of stealing a chain. Gresham, an employee of T.I.'s Echo Studios in Atlanta, says he was held captive and assaulted for over 12 hours on September 8, when Mike Bigga could not find his gold diamond-encrusted chain and medallion.

Shyne Talks Becoming An Orthodox Jew

Moses Michael Levi formerly known as Shyne, is giving the world access to his new found beliefs as an Orthodox Jew. The rapper who spent nine years in jail after a nightclub shooting with Diddy and his then girlfriend J.Lo, sat down with the New York Times to discuss his new lifestyle. Since his release in October of 2009, the rapper was deported to Belize where his father serves as the prime minister. Following that, he moved to Jerusalem where he says he has sessions of "Talmud" study with strict rabbis in between working on a musical comeback.

Jay-Z Gives Fans Ultimate Experience With New Website

The rapper who is out to set yet another trend, not in music or in publishing but online. In anticipation of the release of his upcoming anthology, The Hits Collection, Jay has decided to incorporate a state of the art website that introduces a truly interactive fan experience. The site gives fans a way to not only learn the history and career of Jay-Z, but also gives an exclusive look at behind the scenes photos, videos and a discography released during the period selected.

Diddy Upset With Jay Electronica For Signing To Roc Nation

Diddy is reportedly upset that his friend Jay Electronica signed with Jay-Z at Roc Nation. While a number of people were ecstatic that Jay Electronica made a pivotal move in his career and signed to Jay-Z's Roc Nation record label last Friday, Diddy was reportedly upset and aired out his grievances with the rapper over Twitter. The Bad Boy Records head took to his Twitter page to speak on the betrayal he felt from a "good friend" coincidentally soon after news of Jay's signing took place.

"SON"
Some may remember Jack Benny, the television comic who played the role of a penny-pinching miser, insisting on remaining 39 years old on stage despite his actual age, and who often played the violin badly. Honored by his hometown, a middle school is named with his famous statement as "Home of the '39ers."

As Jack Benny's perpetual age is warmly acknowledged we, too, recognize our daddy's transition to perpetual care to the "Home of the '39ers!" The gospel message sung by Aretha Franklin's "Never Grow Old," is encouraging just to know "...in a land on a far away strand, 'tis the beautiful home on the shore; it was built by Jesus on high and there you will never grow old..."

Well Daddy, enjoy your celebration and Mama too; by faith and belief in Jesus, one day, we will join you in the Home of the '39ers! Good night Daddy, we'll see you in the morning!

With heartfelt praise to God, the Williams Family.

Three Arrests Made After Armed Robbery At Dollar General

ST. PETERSBURG — St. Petersburg Police detectives have been working a pattern of seven armed robberies over the past few weeks.

On Wednesday, undercover detectives were conducting a robbery stake out in the vicinity of the Dollar General Store on 49th Street, North, when they observed a vehicle drive slowly around the business.

Police said the vehicle stopped on the side of the store. Isah Chisom, 20, and Nathaniel Barnes, 32, got out wearing hooded sweat shirts.

The driver of the car, Danielle Johns, 20, remained in the vehicle.

According to reports, as Chisom and Barnes approached the front of the business, they put bandanas over their faces, pulled hoods up over their heads, and entered the Dollar General Store. Out of the view of detectives, Chisom allegedly produced a handgun and with the assistance of Barnes, robbed the store. Both suspects quickly went out the front door, heading back to a vehicle where Johns was waiting.

Detectives said Rodney Parham and Isah Chisom were involved.

Both Chisom and Barnes were detained by the detectives. Barnes was unarmed and uninjured. Johns attempted to drive off in the vehicle, but was stopped as she pulled out from the parking lot, police said.

A Better Place

They’re in a better place right now, than they’ve ever been before. All pain is gone; they’re now at rest; nothing troubles them anymore.

It’s we who feel the burden of our sadness and our grief. We have to cry, to mourn our loss, before we get relief.

We know we’ll re-connect with them at the end of each life’s road. We’ll see their cherished face again, when we release our earthly load.

Missed by the Family.

REMEMBERING YOUR BIRTHDAY

We little knew that morning that God was going to call your name.

In life we loved you dearly, in death we do the same. It broke our hearts to lose you, you did not go alone, for part of us went with you, the day God called you home.

You left us peaceful memories, your love is still our guide, and though we cannot see you, you are always at our side.

Our family chain is broken, and nothing seems the same. But as God calls us, one by one, the Chain will link again.

The Family.

Three Arrests Made After Armed Robbery At Dollar General

ST. PETERSBURG — St. Petersburg Police detectives have been working a pattern of seven armed robberies over the past few weeks.

On Wednesday, undercover detectives were conducting a robbery stake out in the vicinity of the Dollar General Store on 49th Street, North, when they observed a vehicle drive slowly around the business.

Police said the vehicle stopped on the side of the store. Isah Chisom, 20, and Nathaniel Barnes, 32, got out wearing hooded sweat shirts.

The driver of the car, Danielle Johns, 20, remained in the vehicle.

According to reports, as Chisom and Barnes approached the front of the business, they put bandanas over their faces, pulled hoods up over their heads, and entered the Dollar General Store. Out of the view of detectives, Chisom allegedly produced a handgun and with the assistance of Barnes, robbed the store. Both suspects quickly went out the front door, heading back to a vehicle where Johns was waiting.

Detectives said Rodney Parham and Isah Chisom were involved.

Both Chisom and Barnes were detained by the detectives. Barnes was unarmed and uninjured. Johns attempted to drive off in the vehicle, but was stopped as she pulled out from the parking lot, police said.

A Better Place

They’re in a better place right now, than they’ve ever been before. All pain is gone; they’re now at rest; nothing troubles them anymore.

It’s we who feel the burden of our sadness and our grief. We have to cry, to mourn our loss, before we get relief.

We know we’ll re-connect with them at the end of each life’s road. We’ll see their cherished face again, when we release our earthly load.

Missed by the Family.

REMEMBERING YOUR BIRTHDAY

We little knew that morning that God was going to call your name.

In life we loved you dearly, in death we do the same. It broke our hearts to lose you, you did not go alone, for part of us went with you, the day God called you home.

You left us peaceful memories, your love is still our guide, and though we cannot see you, you are always at our side.

Our family chain is broken, and nothing seems the same. But as God calls us, one by one, the Chain will link again.

The Family.

CARD OF THANKS

We would like to especially thank: Reverend Antonio Hawkins, Divine Worship Church of God, Minister Rosson Hamilton and Alkins Funeral Home for an outstanding job. Edward, Deborah, Sonya Mitchell and families.

ST. PETERSBURG — St. Petersburg Police are looking for two men who robbed a bank Tuesday morning.

Police said officers and detectives arrived on the scene at the First Community Bank on Central Avenue after receiving a call of the robbery from a bank employee at 10:58 a.m.

According to reports, two men entered the bank armed with handguns and their faces, head, and hands covered.

Police said one suspect ordered two of the bank employees to the vault, but once there, an employee told the suspects access to the money inside was not possible. Both suspects fled without taking any money.

The suspect then used the victims' credit card and flexible spending card at the Walgreen's Store to purchase a Visa card and miscellaneous items for a total of $1,444.73.

Former Buccaneer Arrested On Warrant

Former Tampa Bay Buccaneer offensive lineman, Arron Sears, has been arrested on a warrant from an altercation in a hospital in June.

According to authorities, in June, Sears grabbed a police officer's arm and pushed his 360 pounds body against him in an attempt to flee his room at Tampa General Hospital.

Sears was being hospitalized under the Baker Act at the request of his personal physician.

The incident at Tampa General led to a warrant being filed against Sears on a charge of battery on a law enforcement officer.

On Saturday, Hillsborough County Sheriff's deputies found Sears wandering in the middle of the road near Gunn Highway. He was arrested on the warrant.

According to reports, two men who robbed a bank armed with handguns and their faces, head, and hands covered.

Police said one suspect ordered two of the bank employees to the vault, but once there, an employee told the suspects access to the money inside was not possible. Both suspects fled without taking any money.

I grew up bussing tables at this restaurant. Last year, my wife, Brooke, and I bought it. We were working hard to build a business, then the spill hit. BP said they would try to make things right. But how was an energy company going to help our restaurant?

Keeping Businesses Open
We figured they would tell us to take a number and wait in line. Instead, they asked us if we could serve food to the workers, engineers, scientists, and local residents they had hired to cleanup the spill. It kept us busy round the clock. And we weren't the only ones. They hired a lot of local businesses and kept a lot of people working. They have kept businesses up and down the Gulf and it's still making a difference.

Open for Business
BP asked us to share our story with you to keep you informed. Our restaurant's open six days a week. Customers are filling our restaurant again and we think it's a good time to come down to the Gulf Coast. And if we could make just one request, please think of us when planning your next vacation. We're still here and while it's been tough, we are still cooking. And we are just one of the hundreds of great places ready to welcome you when you come down. So don't wait. We're looking forward to seeing you.

"Now Gulf seafood is coming back on the menu, so come on down, we're open for business."

With that being said, it’s not my fault, it’s just my birthday.

DRAWARDS CELEBRATE
50th Anniversary
Lawrence and Rita Anderson celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary with the renewal of vows. The event was held at the Blaise Alfonso Conference Center. Family, friends, and classmates came from far and near — Turkey, North Carolina, California, Louisiana, Miami, New York and Virginia — to help the couple celebrate.

RITA AND LAWRENCE ANDERSON
sometimes life gets the best of most people. situations arise, families fall out, and enemies emerge. some days you feel like you just want to get away and hide from it all. life will at some point get the best of you. when it does, where do you go to get away from it all and to whom do you turn for help?

this is the situation of the psalmist in psalm 91. the psalmist found the answer to these questions. the psalmist knew that he needed somewhere to go and somewhere to turn that would be able to provide him the comfort and security he needed.

he writes, “he that dwelleth in the secret place of the most high shall abide under the shadow of the almighty” (vs. 1). god has been and will be a place of refuge and security for his people. when you dwell in god, the enemy cannot have access to you unless god permits him. if god allows him access to you then you have to trust that god will take care of you and not allow any harm or disturbance to come to you.

the psalmist gives his readers an understanding of what god will do for them. in every insurance policy the insurer details what they will do when things are going wrong in your life than with insurer. he gives assurance! protection and coverage. he knows how to give you victory over the stuff that haunts you in the dark times of your life and he knows how to give you comfort from the stuff you deal with in the day. as an added convenience and protection for choosing god to provide you with security and protection, god assigns special agents to your case. he gives his angels charge over you to keep you in all your ways and prevent you from getting hurt (vs. 11, 12). his angels shall watch over you and keep you in every way, every day.

there is no better place to be when things are going wrong in your life than with god. god gives permanent protection and coverage. his protection is not temporary status but for an everlasting covenant. if you need to get away from it all, and become invisible to some enemies or nagging issues, seek god; he will hide you.

Ray DeMoulin, the founder and president of the Renisha Foundation, will be giving away 600 food boxes to well-deserved families in the Tampa Bay area. The event will take place Saturday, November 20th from 11 a.m. until 4 p.m. at 13753 North Nebraska Avenue.

The Renisha Foundation was founded after the accidental shooting death of DeMoulin’s daughter, Renisha Seltzer, at the age of 12. Since her passing, DeMoulin has forgiven the young man responsible for her death and is also mentoring the young man.

“I helped him get enrolled in a GED program and explore other aspirations. The foundation has hosted several community events to bring awareness to illegal guns and weapons.”

The Renisha Foundation is based in Tampa, and the mission of the organization is to encourage, equip, and empower teenagers and young adults. “Our efforts toward achieving this goal are centered on providing education about the dangers of illegal weapons, while generating opportunities in educational and extracurricular activities,” said DeMoulin.

Thanksgiving Day Menu

From Tonia Turner

This year, add a pinch of creativity with these recipes that will surely enhance your holiday menu.

Roast Turkey & Mushroom Stuffing

3 1/2 cups chicken stock
3 tablespoons lemon juice
1 teaspoon dried basil leaves, crushed
1 teaspoon dried thyme leaves, crushed
1/4 teaspoon ground black pepper
1 stalk celery, coarsely chopped (about 1/2 cup)
1 small onion, coarsely chopped (about 1/4 cup)
1/2 cup sliced mushrooms (about 1 1/2 ounces)
4 cups herb seasoned stuffing
1 turkey (12 to 14 pounds)

DIRECTIONS: Stir 1 3/4 cups stock, lemon juice, basil, thyme and 1/8 teaspoon black pepper into the neck and body cavities. Fold any loose skin over the stuffing. Tie the ends of the drumsticks together.

Place the turkey, breast side up, on a rack in shallow roasting pan. Sprinkle the turkey with the cooking spray. Brush with the stock mixture. Insert a meat thermometer into the thickest part of the meat, not touching the bone.

Roast at 325°F for 3 1/2 to 4 hours or until the thermometer reads 180°F, the drumstick moves easily and the stuffing reaches 165°F. Baste occasionally with the stock mixture. Begin checking for doneness after 3 hours of roasting time. Let the turkey stand for 10 minutes before slicing. Bake leftover stuffing in a covered casserole with the turkey for 30 minutes or until the stuffing is hot.

Sweet Potato Cheesecake

3 packs cream cheese, softened
1 cup sugar
4 large eggs
3 egg yolks
3 tablespoons flour
2 teaspoons each cinnamon and nutmeg
1 teaspoon ginger
1 cup whipping cream
1 1/2 cups sweet potatoes, mashed

Graham Cracker Pecan Crust
2 cups crushed graham cracker crumbs
1/2 cup melted butter
4/5 cup finely chopped pecans

DIRECTIONS: Preheat oven to 425°.

Crust: Combine crust ingredients thoroughly; press into a 10-inch springform pan.

Beat cream cheese, sugar, and eggs until smooth; beat in flour, cinnamon, and ginger. Beat cream and well-mashed sweet potatoes in on medium speed of a hand held mixer just until well-combined.

Pour the batter into the prepared crust. Bake at 425° for 15 minutes; lower heat to 275° and bake 1 hour longer. Cool on a wire rack.

Serve with whipped topping or ice cream.
Natural Remedies For Depression

For when it's beyond a bad day: Learn more about symptoms and what you can do to overcome depression.

According to research or other evidence, the following self-care steps may be helpful:

WHAT YOU NEED TO DO AND KNOW

Get Active
Exercise that increases your heart rate at least three hours a week (or 30 minutes a day) may help boost your body's natural mood-enhancers (endorphins).

Check Out St. John’s Wort
Take 600 to 1,200 mg a day of a standardized herbal extract containing of 0.3% hypericin to help with mild to moderate depression—but talk to your doctor first as St. John’s wort can interact with certain medications.

Get Enough Iron
A lack of iron can make depression worse; check with a doctor to find out if you are iron deficient.

Try B Vitamins
Take a supplement that contains folic acid and vitamins B12 and B6 to help correct deficiencies associated with depression.

Seek Counseling
A mental health professional may help you make a full recovery.

Remember admitting you have an issue is the first step.

Is Your Dinner Affecting Your Prostate?
Black men have the highest rate of prostate cancer in the world, and prostate cancer is the 2nd leading cause of cancer death among Black men.

Best Nutrition Practices For A Healthy Prostate

Fruits and Vegetables.
Daily servings should be 9-10.

Supplements.
Vitamins A, C and E, as well as selenium, lycopene, and betacarotene reduce oxidative damage in prostate cells. Flax seed can inhibit tumor growth, while green tea polyphenols have been shown to block cancer-causing compounds. Finally, saw palmetto can help reduce inflammation and the growth of malignant cells by blocking the conversion of testosterone to DHT.

Cold? Or Sinus Infection?

Is It A Cold?
With a cold, there's a cluster of symptoms including:
• Nasal congestion
• A run-down feeling
• Runny nose with clear discharge
• Sneezing
• Sore throat
• Post nasal drip (nasal fluid dripping down the back of the throat)
• Fever is uncommon in adults but can be seen in children

Colds may be accompanied by a cough and headache and last three to seven days with or without any treatment.

Is It A Sinus Infection
Sinusitis simply means inflammation of the sinuses. Whether it's caused by a cold, an infection or allergies, any swelling of the sinuses can produce symptoms such as:
• Pressure or pain behind the eyes or cheeks
• Pain in the top teeth
• Congestion
• Green or yellow nasal drainage
• Headache
• Post nasal drip

People also complain of fatigue, difficulty breathing through the nose, decreased sense of smell, and restless sleep.

If you think you have a cold every month or every other month, because your sinuses are flaring up, it's probably not a cold but a chronic sinus infection.
Coping With Lactose Intolerance

If milk and other dairy products are giving you a hard time, try these:
- Drink small quantities of milk at one time.
- Drink milk with meals.
- Use Lactaid (an enzyme to help digest lactose in dairy) every time you eat dairy.
- Use special milk products which have lactose reduced by 90%. Some "lactose-reduced" milk products have lactose only partially reduced – so be sure to read the labels.
- For infants with lactose intolerance, try Lactose-free infant formulas.
- Try calcium-fortified soy milk to ensure adequate calcium intake.
- Also try calcium-fortified orange juice if you are concerned about calcium.
- Stick to dairy products that are naturally low in lactose, such as swiss cheese and cottage cheese.

Is Your Job Hazardous To Your Health?

Okay, sure, the daily work grind can be challenging, but hazardous? Well, according to current studies, yes.

But there’s some good news, too: you can undo the damage, whether you spend your days behind a desk or stand around all day.

You Sit All Day

News Flash: Sitting too much is bad for you. Not only does it place pressure on the low back and tailbone, causing pain and even sciatic nerve trouble, but two recent studies also found that the more time people spend on their butts each day, the more likely they are to die of cancer or heart disease.

Undo The Damage: The way to ward off both strain and the scarier, more serious health effects of sitting is fairly simple. For five minutes every hour, get up and do something – a trip to the bathroom or the water-cooler works, but the more active you can be, the better.

You Type All Day

News Flash: Spending 20 or more hours a week in front of a computer can put someone at risk of wrist injuries. Often the damage is severe enough that surgery is the only real cure. That’s why prevention is crucial.

Undo The Damage: When you’re typing, keep your wrists in a neutral position — never rest them on your desk or hold them up too high. Ideally, your forearms should be supported on armrests.

Interesting Fact: For females, during your menstrual cycle, your body retains water, including in the arms and wrists, which increases pressure on the nerves.

You Stand All Day

News Flash: People, especially women, who stand for more than eight hours a day have significantly higher rates of varicose veins than those who are on their feet less, research has found.

Undo The Damage: It seems counterintuitive, but after a long day of putting pressure on your legs and feet, the smartest thing to do is move them. "Sitting with your legs up can relieve engorged veins and soreness temporarily, but increasing circulation by moving around is the best thing.

The Unhealthiest Place For Your Toothbrush: The Sink

There’s nothing wrong with the sink itself, but it’s generally right next to the toilet. Unfortunately, when you flush, aerosolized toilet icky­ness is propelled as far as 6 feet, settling on whatever is nearby, including the floor, the sink, and your toothbrush.

The Best Place: Keep your toothbrush behind closed doors — in the medicine cabinet or a nearby cupboard.

Why Isn’t My Belly Flat?

You’re Not Engaging Your Core Ab Muscles. Simply pulling your navel in when you are sitting, standing or exercising will activate your Ab horizontal fibers to do their job.

You’re Not Burning Enough Fat. As we mature, fat tissue settles more easily in certain areas like the abdominals.

You’re Not Active Enough. If you are not getting adequate exercise then the belly and rest of the body will reflect that.

You’re Not Eating A Proper Diet. You could be working out several times a week but if your diet is not healthy then you’re undermining your workouts. Small, consistent changes in eating (and drinking) will lessen the accumulation of fat around the midsection and the rest of the body.

NEW YORK/ Fuquay-Varina, NC - There is a new No. 1 atop the Bostcow.com/BASN media and coaches polls for the fourth time this year.

With Grambling State's stunning 42-9 overtime loss to Texas Southern and by virtue of Bethune-Cookman defeating Howard, the Wildcats become the new #1 this week.

The undefeated Wildcats received 17 of 22 first-place votes in the media poll while receiving all 22 first-place nods in the coaches' poll.

As expected the top five shifted a bit as well.

The only other undefeated team in Black College Football, Albany State (10-0) is second followed by the South Carolina State Bulldogs (8-2) at #3. Grambling dropped a bit as well.

The Wildcats of Bethune-Cookman University held off a game Howard University Bison 35-20, before 9,433 Municipal Stadium fans to reach 10-0 for the first time in school history. The victory clinched a share of the Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference crown with Howard. The Cats opened the scoring on a quick 62-yard, 6-play drive, on a 1-yard run by running back Johnathan Moment.

The score was followed by a 17-yard pass from quarterback Matt Johnson to receiver Eddie Poole. The key play leading to the score was a 69-yard interception return by linebacker Ryan Lewis. The lead was increased to 21-0, when Jarkevis Field recovered a Howard fumble in the endzone.

Howard finally got something to cheer about early in the third quarter on a 27-yard pass from quarterback Terry Braden to receiver Duley Gunter. The point-after kick was no good for a 21-6 score. Early in the fourth, Braden hit receiver Willie Carter on a 41-yard bomb to trim the lead to 21-12.

On Senior Day in Bragg Stadium. The outcome was in doubt to the end as the Rattlers could not put away the Pirates when they had the opportunity in the first half.

FAMU used a 79-yard sprint by running back Philip Sylvester at the ten-minute mark of the opening quarter for a 7-0 lead. Hampton responded on its ensuing possession with a 22-yard field goal by Rodrigo Gonzalez. Early in the second quarter, quarterback Austin Tranor went off tackle on a 5-yard run to up the score to 14-0. On the ensuing possession Hampton got another field goal from Hernandez, this time from 39 yards. Later in the quarter, FAMU upped the led to 17-6 on a 25-yard field goal by Trevis Scott where it stood at the half.

The 17 points turned out to be it for the Rattlers as drive after drive eventually stalled. The Pirates were not much better scoring only six points in the second half on a 22-yard pass from quarterback David Legree to receiver Jarvis Brown. The two-point conversion pass was intercepted by cornerback Curtis Holcomb.

FAMU is looking forward to the Saturday afternoon battle against rival Bethune-Cookman University in the Florida Classic at the Citrus Bowl in Orlando. The 7-3 Rattlers are in second-place in the Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference at 6-1, behind BCU at 10-0 and 7-0 in the conference.

Wildcats Continue On Road To Perfection

The point-after kick was blocked this time.

In a bizarre final 2:44, Reggie Sandiands returned an interception 26 yards to increase the 'Cats lead to 28-12. A little over a minute later, Braden threw his third touchdown pass of the game, this one to Bradden Drayton. Bethune ended the scoring on the ensuing kickoff when Eddie Poole returned the ensuing kick 37 yards.

On Saturday afternoon at 2:30, B-CU will be seeking its first ever 11-0 season, as well as the Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference crown in the Florida Classic in Orlando against Florida A & M University. This season also marks the first Football Championship Subdivision playoff appearance for B-CU since 2008, when the subdivision was known as Division I-AA.

Rangel Found Guilty Of Violating 11 House Rules

WASHINGTON — Rep. Charles Rangel, once one of the most influential House members, was found guilty Tuesday on 11 counts of breaking ethics rules and now faces punishment.

An ethics panel of eight House peers deliberated over two days before delivering a jarring blow to the 20-term New York Democrat’s career. The 80-year-old Rangel was charged with 13 counts of financial and fundraising misconduct.

The full ethics committee will now conduct a hearing on the appropriate punishment for Rangel.

The next step for the committee is to make a recommendation on punishment to the House.

Possible sanctions include a House vote deploring Rangel’s conduct, a fine and denial of privileges.

REP. CHARLES RANGEL

He also was found guilty of failing to disclose at least $600,000 in assets and income in a series of inaccurate reports to Congress, using a rent-subsidized New York apartment for a campaign office, when it was designated for residential use, and failure to report the IRS rental income from a housing unit in a Dominican Republic resort.

Hawaii Among Two Universities Eyeing Obama Library

HONOLULU, HI — President Barack Obama hasn’t even finished the second year of his first term in the White House, but officials with two universities that are interested in building his presidential library are already positioning themselves to win the Hawaii-born president’s favor.

The University of Hawaii is well into early preparations — including preliminary searches for potential sites, talks with National Archives officials and deliberations on what if any new academic center might accompany an Obama Library and Museum.

The University of Chicago, located in the city where Pres. Obama’s political career began, signaled an interest a year ago but is saying very little now.

Ex-Trooper Pleads Guilty In 1965 Slaying Of Civil Rights Protester

Ex-Trooper Pleads Guilty In 1965 Slaying Of Civil Rights Protester

It took 45 years, but justice is close to being served in the murder of a Black civil rights protestor from Alabama by a white police officer.

James Bonard Fowler, 77, a former state police officer pleaded guilty to a lesser charge in the 1965 shooting death of Jimmie Lee Jackson at a Civil Rights protest.

Fowler entered the plea of manslaughter — second-degree manslaughter — two weeks before he was scheduled to go to trial on a murder charge for the death of Jackson.

Fowler allegedly shot Jackson in a cafe as a protest march turned violent in Marion, Alabama, on the night of Feb. 18, 1965. Fowler claimed Jackson was trying to grab the trooper’s gun and that he fired in self-defense.

Jackson later died from his wounds in an Alabama hospital.

Fowler, who apologized to Jackson’s family after entering the plea Monday, said it wasn’t his intention to kill anyone on that fateful night.

“I was coming over here to save lives. I didn’t mean to take lives. I wish I could redo it,” says Fowler.

He was sentenced to six months in jail in Geneva County, his home county.

 Winning $129 Million Lottery Ticket Bought At Detroit-Area Porn Store

A group of friends got lucky when they bought a winning Powerball ticket at a Detroit-area adult store.

Mike Greer claimed the $128.6 million prize last Friday, on behalf of a group of southeastern Michigan residents that he dubbed “Team Victory Club.” At a press conference in Lansing, Michigan, Greer wouldn’t answer questions as to who purchased the ticket at Uptown Book Store.

Team Victory Club, on the other hand, opted for a lump sum payout of $65.6 million before taxes.

Greer said that the winners planned to give some of their money to an unnamed local church, “and maybe fix some things around the house.”
