Biographical Note
Henry Hampton Dunn and his twin sister Hazel were born in Floral City, Florida (Citrus County) on December 14, 1916. In 1932 he published his first article, as a Boy Scout correspondent, for the Citrus County Chronicle. During his high school years, which he completed in Tampa, he wrote sports reviews for the Tampa Tribune and Florida Times Union. Hampton attended Mercer University in Macon, Georgia and the University of Tampa. During World War II, he served as a public relations officer and war correspondent with the 12th Air Force in the Mediterranean Theatre, stationed in England, North Africa, Italy, Sardinia, Corsica, and Southern France. He left the service in November 1945 at the rank of major and with a Bronze Star. In 1936 Hampton joined the Tampa Daily Times as a full time journalist and continued, after his military service, until 1958, retiring as Managing Editor when the paper merged with the Tampa Tribune. In 1946 he received the "Best News Story Award" from the Associated Press Association of Florida for his coverage of the Marjorie Kinnan Rawlings invasion of privacy trial. For two years Hampton served as a political commentator and news analyst for station WCKT-TV in Miami. When he returned to Tampa, he joined the Peninsula Motor Club, an affiliate of the American Automobile Association, as an executive officer and later vice president. Hampton edited AAA’s monthly magazine, Florida Explorer, and several other journals and newsletters including the Sunland Tribune (Tampa Historical Society) and The Hub (Rotary Club of Tampa). His syndicated columns included "Photouring Florida" (began in 1966), "Floridana," and "Palm Tree Politics." During his later years, he presented "Hampton Dunn's Yesterdays" -- little histories of Florida events -- on WTVT, Channel 13. Hampton belonged to many organizations, including the Tampa Historical Society, Florida Historical Society, and Historical Association of Southern Florida. His talks to many historical and genealogical groups around the state earned him the affectionate title, "Mr. Florida." Hampton and his wife Charlotte Ruth Rawls Dunn were the parents of three children. He died February 3, 2002.

Scope Note
The collection consists of syndicated newspaper clippings, ephemera, correspondence, brochures, photographs, and articles written about the various places and people of Florida.

Arrangement Note: The collection is arranged alphabetically with a separate series for photographs. The cities, towns, and physical locations within Florida are arranged in the county in which they reside. For example, Tampa would be listed under Hillsborough County.

Arrangement
The collection is arranged alphabetically with a separate series for photographs. The cities, towns, and physical locations within Florida are arranged in the county in which they reside. For example, Tampa would be listed under Hillsborough County.
