Biographical Note

Elizabeth Riegler MacManus was born in Lutz, Florida on July 18, 1923. MacManus dedicated her life to preserving the history of the Lutz and Land O' Lakes areas. MacManus' father, Mike Reigler was the first permanent resident of the area and became the first person in the area to grow a nursery of citrus. MacManus wrote various works on the history of the area, including Citrus, Sawmills, Critters and Crackers: Life in Early Lutz and Central Pasco County that she co-authored with her daughter Susan MacManus. Considered the definitive history of the area, Citrus, Sawmills, Critters and Crackers preserves many of the oral histories and photographs of the Lutz area that would have otherwise been lost. MacManus taught Sunday school for over 40 years in Lutz and never grew tired of searching for new historical artifacts. She passed away on June 21, 2008 at the age of 84.
