Biographical Note

Charles S. Mahan, M.D., is Professor Emeritus, College of Public Health and the Lawton and Rhea Chiles Center for Healthy Mothers and Babies. Mahan received his MD from Northwestern University and worked for the University of Florida and the North Central Florida Maternal and Infant Care Program before joining the University of South Florida as Dean of the College of Public Health (1995-2002). University of South Florida Tampa Library. (2006). Special collections establishes the Dr. Charles Mahan Collection of American Humor and Cartoon Art. University of South Florida Library Links, 10(3), 2-3.

Scope Note

In addition to Disney animation catalogs, illustrations, lithographs, cels, posters, calendars, newspapers, LPs and sheet music, the Mahan Collection of American Humor and Cartoon Art includes numerous non-Disney and political illustrations that depict American humor and cartoon art. While the earliest illustration in this collection is from 1838, its focus is the Golden Age of American Animation (1895-1945).

ITEM: "The Mane Event", 1994
Scope/Content: Includes Certificate of Authenticity: This is a sericel from Walt Disney Pictures' 32nd animated feature film The Lion King (1994). It is one of a series of selected limited-edition, screen-printed recreations of original artwork from Disney animated films. This sericel, "The Mane Event," is from Sequence 4.2, Scene 18 of The Lion King: Simba is the "Mane Event" as he sings about his future as king of the Pride Lands. The Studio has chosen to recreate Disney character images from this film using the fine art screen-printing process of color reproduction. Disney artists, working from the original animation drawings used for the production of The Lion King as well as from film reference materials, have translated the original image to a hand-inked and hand-painted cel. This cel was used by American Atelier in El Segundo, California in the production of these sericels. This limited edition was produced in 1994. It is comprised of a general edition of 5,000 sericels and 500 publisher's proofs, for a total maximum of 5,500 sericels. Disney Art Editions approved the techniques used in the production of this edition and the proofs thereof. Conforming to the practice of fine-art printing, the screens used to create the edition are destroyed when the edition is completed. The original cel is archived with the publisher. There are no signed or numbered impressions in this edition. Copyright The Walt Disney Company.
